CLOTHING CLEANSED AND COLLARS RESTOR-

From tar, paint or grease spots, or any such thing, To a state of pure cleanliness each garment I bring; Then, ackling new inster to the primeval shade Is what I consider my business and trade.

My manner of cleaning and dyeing is both An improvement to texture and lister of cloth; It being the truit of much labor and toil, I piedge much advantage when others might spoil.

And truly there is nothing more worthy ones. Than skiling new value to vest, pants or cost. If will gain him the smiles of Economy's self, And skil to his pocket an increase of pelf.
